BURNED AT THE STAKE.

Frederick Rochelle, a negro, 35 years of age, who at noon Tuesday criminally assaulted and then murdered Mrs. Rosa Taggart, a well-known and respectable white woman of Bartow, Fla., was burned at the stake there early yesterday evening in the presence of a throng of people. The burning was on the scene of the negro's crime, within 100 yards of the principal thoroughfare of Bartow.

The assault and murder was one of the boldest crimes ever committed in Florida. At 10 o'clock Tuesday morning Mrs. Taggart, who was born and reared in Bartow, went fishing alone in a small rowboat that she kept at the city bridge over Piacore creek. This is in full view of the public thoroughfare. A few minutes before noon she rowed to the bridge and made her boat fast. A negro man was fishing from the bridge at the time. Mrs. Taggart started home and had proceeded only a few steps in the swamp toward the open prairie and thence to the street when she was approached by Rochelle, who had been hiding in the swamp. He seized her and she broke loose and would be obliged to take to my bed and remain sometimes for a day and night. Nothing I took did me any good until last winter, when some one advised my husband to get for me a bottle of KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE, which he did. I used several bottles of it and I am happy to say I can eat any kind of strong diet I please. I can sleep well at night and I feel like another person altogether. I cannot give Kodol Dyspepsia Cure too much praise, and I will highly recommend it to all sufferers of dyspepsia.—Mrs. Peter Kline, Hopewell, Pa.

While she was prostrate he held her with his hands and knees, and, taking his knife from his pocket, cut her throat from ear to ear, causing instant death. He then walked to the negro, who had been fishing on the bridge and who was thoroughly frightened, and asked him what he should do with the body. He was told to leave it where it was, but, according to this request, he took the bleeding form in his arms and carried it back to the swamp, dropped it and escaped into the interior of the swamp. In a few minutes the crime had been reported and in less than an hour practically the entire town was in arms and a posse was searching in every direction for the criminal. Bloodhounds were secured and all night the search was continued.

About noon a courier arrived announcing that the negro had been captured by two other negroes three miles south of Bartow. Poses were immediately on the trail, but the capture evaded detection and succeeded in getting their prisoner into town and in turning him over to the sheriff of Polk county. In less than 10 minutes after the transfer had been made the streets became congested with people, and the crowd, augmented as it marched, moved on the jail. In spite of the sheriff and a strong guard of extra deputies, the crowd secured the prisoner and took up the march to the scene of the crime. He was half-dressed and half-carried by his captors, surrounded by a great throng of people of all ages. Screams of derision broke from the wretch's quivering lips, followed by groans and prayers for mercy. At the bridge the mob turned toward the prairie and then into the swamp and to the scene of the crime.

By common consent burning was to be the penalty. The stake was the only suggestion as to the proper expiation of the crime, and, without organized effort and yet with apparently unanimous understanding, a barrel was in readiness and was placed by the stake on the very spot where Mrs. Taggart was assaulted and murdered.

On this the negro was placed and chained to the stake. He pleaded for mercy, but in the great crowd around him silence was the only response. Before the chains around his body had been made fast cans of kerosene oil from many sources were passed to the front and one of the leaders stepped to the negro and slowly but deliberately poured it upon him and his clothes until clothes and barrel were well saturated. It was then 6 o'clock. The crowd was then growing and business in the city had practically been suspended. When the match was applied the blaze quickly leaped skyward. The burning body could be seen only as a dark object in the circle of a roaring flame. Then the fire slackened and the writhing body came back in full view, but already the groans had ceased, and the only evidence of life was in the contortions of the muscles of the limbs. For 15 minutes the body burned, and in half an hour from the minute of the application of the match only the charred bones were left. The crowd dispersed.

Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup for soothing babies. Full-size bottle, 10 cents. Cures Wind Colic, Diarrhea, Loss of Sleep, Griping Pains, Sour Stomach, Fever, Cholera Infantum. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup also promotes the digestion and soothes the baby. Sold by Richard Gibson and all druggists.
To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Cream Balm in liquid form, which will be known as Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price, including the spraying tube, 75c. Druggists or by mail. The liquid form embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the mucous membrane, but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.
Mr. W. J. Baxter, of North Brook, N. C., says he suffered with piles for fifteen years. He tried many remedies with no results until he used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve and that quickly cured him.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Digests what you eat.
We would like to call your attention to the following letter:
Dear Sirs:—I have been suffering from dyspepsia for 21 years. Whenever I would take a strong diet I would be upset in the stomach. I would suffer great pains in the head and stomach and would be obliged to take to my bed and remain sometimes for a day and night. Nothing I took did me any good until last winter, when some one advised my husband to get for me a bottle of KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE, which he did. I used several bottles of it and I am happy to say I can eat any kind of strong diet I please. I can sleep well at night and I feel like another person altogether. I cannot give Kodol Dyspepsia Cure too much praise, and I will highly recommend it to all sufferers of dyspepsia.—Mrs. Peter Kline, Hopewell, Pa.

It can't help but do you good

There is a very simple reason why Kodol Dyspepsia Cure invariably cures the worst cases of indigestion even after everything else fails, and that is because it is the only preparation known that contains all the digestants and completely digests what you eat.
Kodol Dyspepsia Cure
Prepared only by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The 81 bottle contains 24 times the 50c. size.
